MEDIA RELEASE

FRIDAY 6TH JULY 2007

PAMAGIRRI ABORIGINAL DANCERS PERFORM IN JAPAN

Members of Rainforestation Nature Park's Pamagirri Aboriginal Dance Troupe will perform in three major cities of Japan at events organised by Tourism Tropical North Queensland.

The events are being put together in conjunction with QANTAS and Jet Star as an opportunity to promote the Tropical North as a destination.

Bernie Singleton, Damien Schreiber and Steven Green depart for Japan on 8th July 2007 to perform at events in Osaka, Tokyo and Nagoya.

The Pamagirri Dance Troupe was originally formed in 1993 following an expansion of Rainforestation Nature Park's already established cultural experience.

Today, the troupe performs 3 shows daily, with a Dreamtime Walk consisting of demonstrating spear throwing and didgeridoo playing, and giving lessons in boomerang throwing.

For further information, please contact Rainforestation Education Sales Manager Shauna Lep on 0439 996 911.
